1 Introduction

The AOC Master List of Statewide ODPs is a tool to keep end users and AOC staff updated on all custom ODPs in Contexte. Also included are lists of each Document's search parameters, both required and optional. Finally, sample Documents are at the end of each section. This list only contains ODPs for statewide use, it does not include county specific ODPs.

2 Objectives

This list is to keep users updated of new ODPs that have been added to Contexte. It will also be a place for users to go to find out how to use those ODPs.

3 About ODP Document Printing

For each ODP document listed, you will find details regarding:

DEPUTY CLERK

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT OF YOUR RIGHT TO CLAIM CERTAIN PROPERTIES AS BEING EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION.

The Writ of execution delivered to you with this Notice means that certain properties belonging to you have been executed upon in order to pay a court judgment against you. HOWEVER, YOU MAY BE ABLE TO KEEP YOUR PROPERTY FROM BEING TAKEN, OR TO SUBSTITUTE THE PROPERTY THAT IS TAKEN, SO READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

State and Federal laws say that certain property may not be taken to pay certain types of court judgments. This money or property is said to be 'exempt' from execution.

For example, under the Arkansas Constitution and State law, you will be able to claim as exempt all or part of your wages or other personal property. As another example, under federal law the following are also exempt from garnishment: Social Security, SSI, Veteran's benefits, AFDC (welfare), unemployment compensation, and worker's compensation.

You have the right to petition the court within twenty (20) days to claim an exemption. If your claim of an exemption is contested, the court shall promptly hold a hearing after your claim has been filed. YOU MUST IMMEDIATELY SERVE A COPY OF YOUR CLAIM UPON THE PARTY SEEKING EXECUTION.

If you need legal assistance to help you try to save your wages or property from being garnished, you should see a lawyer. If you can't afford a private lawyer, contact your local bar association or ask the clerk's office about any legal services program in your area.

NOTICE TO THE GARNISHEE

1. A judgment has been obtained in the CIRCUIT COURT OF PULASKI COUNTY against the judgment Debtor listed in this writ and remains unsatisfied. The plaintiff believes that you are indebted to the Defendant, or have in your possession goods, chattels, moneys, credits, or effects belonging to the Defendant.
2. You are directed to prepare a written answer, under oath, and to file this answer in the CIRCUIT COURT OF PULASKI COUNTY Clerk's office within twenty (20) days from the date in which you are served with this writ. The written answer should contain a statement of what goods, chattels, moneys, credits, or effects you may have in your possession belonging to the Defendant.
3. In addition, you are required to answer any further interrogatories that may be asked of you.
4. Do not pay money to the Clerk. You should hold the money until a court order directs you to release the money. You will then pay it to the plaintiff's attorney or agent.

NOTICE TO NON-EMPLOYER GARNISHEE

Failure to answer this writ within 20 days or failure or refusal to answer the interrogatories attached hereto shall result in the court entering a judgment against you and you becoming personally liable for the full amount specified in this Writ together with costs of this action as provided by Arkansas Code Annotated 16-110-407.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYER GARNISHEE

Failure to answer this Writ within 20 days or failure or refusal to answer the interrogatories attached hereto shall result in the court entering a judgment against you and you becoming personally liable for the amount of the non-exempt wages owed the debtor-employee on the date you were served this writ as provided by Arkansas Code Annotated 16-110-407.

The judgment or balance due therein is a lien on salaries, wages, or other compensation due at the time of the service of the garnishment and shall continue as to subsequent earnings until the total amount due upon the judgment and costs are paid or satisfied.

The lien on subsequent earnings shall end if the employment relationship is terminated or if the underlying judgment is vacated or modified.

Employer Garnishees are notified that the amount of wages available for withholding for this judgment and costs is subject to certain prior claims. Under Arkansas law income withholding for child support has a priority over all other legal processes. Under Federal law the total amount to be withheld cannot exceed the maximum amount allowed under Section 303(b) of the Title III Consumer Credit Protection Act.

NOTICE TO THE DEFENDANT

The Writ of Garnishment delivered to you with this Notice means that wages, money or other property belonging to you has been garnished in order to pay a court judgment against you. HOWEVER, YOU MAY BE ABLE TO KEEP YOUR MONEY OR PROPERTY FROM BEING TAKEN, SO READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

State and Federal laws say that certain money and property may not be taken to pay certain types of court judgments. Such money or property may not be taken to pay certain types of court judgments. Such money or property is said to be "exempt" from garnishment. For example, under the Arkansas Constitution and state law, you will be able to claim as exempt all or part of your wages or other personal property. As another example, under Federal law the following are also exempt from garnishment: Social Security, SSI, Veteran's benefits, AFDC (welfare), unemployment compensation, and workers compensation.

You have a right to ask for a court hearing to claim these or other exemptions. Such request must be made in writing. If you need legal assistance to help you try to save your wages or property from being garnished, you should see a lawyer. If you can't afford a private lawyer, contact your local bar association or ask the clerk's office about any Legal Services program in your area.

On this Eighth day of August 2011, comes on for consideration the oral motion of the State of Arkansas, by its Prosecuting Attorney for this County, requesting the forfeiture of the defendant’s bail bond and issuance of an alias bench warrant for the immediate arrest of the defendant.

From the statements of the Prosecuting Attorney, a review of the records applicable to this case, and the applicable law, the Court finds that:

99CR-12-4
STATE V DONALD DUCK

Dear: CLINIC ONE

As part of suspended sentences in the above case the Defendant was ordered to contact you regarding entry into and completion of treatment and/or counseling. The Court has enclosed copies of the Court's Terms and Conditions of suspended Sentence, a copy of the Arrest Report, Incident Report and other documents which might be relevant for your evaluation and assessment of this individual to participate in this treatment program.

By separate letter I am directing that the Defendant begin treatment on 12-FEB-2013. My understanding is that this will be a multi-class course covered over a period of time, with the Defendant required to complete the course within the specified time frame.

I would appreciate it if upon registration you would notify the Court as to when the Defendant's treatment program is to be completed. The Defendant is to sign a Release of Information for the Court. Also, if during his participation in this program you believe that other areas of behavior need to be addressed (alcoholism, drug dependency, etc.), please let the Court know immediately. If any problems arise regarding participation, attendance, or behavior during the treatment/counseling sessions, inform the Court immediately.

If you require further information regarding this matter, please let me know, or contact this office at 501-123-4567.

Sincerely,
JUDY BLUME

Dr. Victor Coloso

Attorneys of Record:

The Arkansas Court of Appeals will hear oral argument in the above styled case on the 25th day of May, 2011, at 9:00a.m.in the Supreme Court Courtroom. This date may be changed only upon written motion to the court and upon a showing of good cause. If attempts to schedule oral argument result in undue delay, the court will decide the case without oral argument. See In Re: Rules of Supreme Court & Court of Appeals, Rule 5-1, 2010 Ark. 288.

Only 20 minutes will be allowed each side for argument. If you do not intend to appear, you must notify the Clerk at least five days prior to the date set. If you intend to cite a case outside the briefs, you must furnish the citation to opposing counsel and the court before the date of argument.

When you come to the lectern for argument, you should identify yourself and party or parties you represent; and, if time is to be apportioned with other counsel, or reserved for rebuttal, state the division desired. If non-resident counsel is to participate, compliance with Rule XIV of the Rules Governing Admission to the Bar is mandatory. Please stay in front of the lectern during oral argument because it is recorded on tape.

PLEASE NOTE, effective May 27, 2010, Administrative Order No. 6 was amended to allow for the audio and video recording and broadcasting of oral arguments of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals through a live or tape-delayed format. See Ark. Sup. Cf. Admin. Order No. 6, 2010 Ark. 268. (A copy of this order is enclosed.) Section (d)(9)(C) of Order No. 6 provides that an objection to the broadcasting, recording, or photographing of an oral argument under section (c)(1) shall be made to the court and the court, in its discretion, shall decide whether broadcasting, recording, or photographing will be permitted. If you wish to object to the video recording, photographing, or broadcasting of your oral argument, you must file a motion stating your objections and your reasons for such objections with the Court of Appeals at least twenty-one (21) days before your scheduled oral argument. Your motion must comply with Rule 2-1 of the Rules of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals.

You will find enclosed a card that will allow you to park in designated spaces "For Special Permit Parking Only." The spaces will be reserved in the northwest corner of the parking lot in front of the Justice Building. Please display this card on the dashboard of your vehicle. The attorney's conference room will be open at 8:00a.m.for the convenience of attorneys having oral argument that day.
